Office Action Summary

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In lines 18-19 "the said vertical members" lacks antecedent basis.

In line 24 "said frame assemblies" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-3, 6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Belgian reference #529802.
5. The Belgian reference discloses two frame assemblies 2 having vertical support posts with a free end for temporary securement, flexible banner 4 located on one side of the frame assemblies, and elongated flexible elements 12 secured to the upper edge of the banner and which are passable over a portion of a frame assembly. Base pads 1 provide means for securing the frame assemblies to a support surface and the vertical support posts include sections 2 and 3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Belgian reference.

8. The Belgian reference does not include weights on the base pads, however, such weights are old and well known. The examiner takes official notice of weights used on umbrella stands and support posts for sports equipment (e.g. basketball hoops). It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to utilize such weights to keep the sign in the proper place.

9. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Belgian reference in view of De La Cruz et al., US #4,906,503.

10. The Belgian reference is not clear as to whether the banner may be polymeric, however, such banners are well known. De La Cruz et al. teach a polymeric banner. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to utilize a polymeric banner so as to provide a banner that is weather resistant and will not tear easily.

11. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Belgian reference in view of Fisher, US #965,097.

Art Unit: 3611

12. The Belgian reference does not teach the banner as being fabric, however, this is well known in the art. Fisher teaches a flexible display wherein the banner may be fabric. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to utilize fabric in the device of the Belgian reference to provide a banner that may be stored compactly when not in use.

13. Claims 9, 11/9, 14/9, 15/9 and 16/9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Belgian reference in view of Born, US #1,751,614.

14. The Belgian reference does not teach rearward support struts and lateral braces, however, this is well known in the art. Born shows a sign support including vertical supports 15, rearward support struts 18 and lateral braces 24 (each comprising one of several sections). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to utilize such supports in the device of the Belgian reference so as to more securely support the display.

15. The Belgian reference teaches base pads, and it would have been obvious to use weights, as discussed previously.

16. Claim 12/9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Belgian reference and Born as applied to claim 9 above, and further in view of De La Cruz et al.

17. It would have been obvious to utilize a polymeric banner for the same reasons as discussed above.

18. Claim 13/9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Belgian reference and Born as applied to claim 9 above, and further in view of Fisher.

Art Unit: 3611

19. It would have been obvious to utilize a fabric banner for the same reasons as discussed above.

Allowable Subject Matter

20. Claim 10 (and 11-16 as dependent therefrom) would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

21. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US patents 6055754, 4700498, 5244302, 2125994 and British specification 2142459 are cited as of interest.
